Preußens erste Königin Sophie Charlotte von Hannover, Margarete Drachenberg,2016-09-02 In ihr vereinigten sich alle Reize ihres Geschlechts mit geistiger Anmut und aufgeklärtem Verstand. In Preußen führte die Fürstin den geselligen Geist ein, echte Höflichkeit und die Liebe zu Kunst und Wissenschaft. Friedrich II. über Sophie Charlotte Den Sohn des Sonnenkönigs sollte sie heiraten, die Frau des brandenburgischen Markgrafen wurde sie. Der krönte alsbald sich und seine Gattin zu König und Königin in Preußen. Im Berliner Stadtschloss kam Sophie Charlotte ihren Pflichten nach, ihr Parkett aber wurde der Musenhof in Schloss Lietzenburg. Dass ihr einziger Sohn, ihr Sorgenkind, als Soldatenkönig seinen Teil zum Aufblühen Preußens beitrug, erlebte die mit 36 Jahren verstorbene Königin nicht mehr. Wenn Preußens Gloria von den Friedrichen und Wilhelmen repräsentiert wird, dann ist Preußens Glanz maßgeblich mit dem Namen Sophie Charlotte verbunden.

Women in European Academies Ute Frevert, Ernst Osterkamp, Günter Stock, 2020-12-07 The volume examines the lives and achievements of women who played determining roles in the history of European academies and in the development of modern science in Europe. These persevering personalities either had a key influence in the establishment of academies (Patronae Scientiarum) or were pioneering scientists who made major contributions to the progress of science (path-breakers). In both cases, their stories provide unique testimonies on the scientific institutions of their time and the systemic barriers female scientists were facing. Conceptualized as a transversal series of biographical portraits, the contributions focus particularly on each personalities' role in (or relation to) European academies, ensuring both a geographical and disciplinary balance. The co-editors of the volume are Professor Ute Frevert (Co-Director at the Max Planck Institute for Human Development), Professor Ernst Osterkamp (President of the Deutsche Akademie für Sprache und Dichtung) and Professor Günter Stock (former ALLEA President).

The Body of the Queen Regina Schulte, 2006-04-01 How many "bodies" does a queen have? What is the significance of multiple "bodies"? How has the gendered body been constructed and perceived within the context of the European courts during the course of the past five centuries? These are some of the questions addressed in this anthology, a contribution to the ongoing debate provoked by Ernst H. Kantorowicz in his seminal work from 1957, The King's Two Bodies. On the basis of both textual self-presentations and visual representations a gradual transformation of the queen appears: A sacred/providential figure in medieval and early modern period, an ideal bourgeois wife during the late-18th and 19th Centuries, and a star-like (re-) presentation of royalty during the past century. Twentieth-century mass media has produced the celebrity and film star queens personified by the contested and enigmatic Nefertiti of ancient Egypt, the mysterious Elizabeth (Sisi) of Austria, Grace Kelly as Queen of both Hollywood and Monaco and Romy Schneider as the invented Empress.

Gespräche In Dem Reiche derer Todten ... Zwischen Der Ersten Königin von Preussen, Sophia Charlotte ... Und Der ... Marggräfin von Bayreuth, Erdmuth Sophia ..., 1735

Sophie Charlotte Barbara Beuys, 2018-03-12 Im Januar 1701 setzt Friedrich I. ihr die Krone auf: Sophie Charlotte

(1668-1705) wird Preußens erste Königin. Geistreich, weltoffen und selbstbewusst macht sie Schloss Lietzenburg - nach ihrem Tod Charlottenburg genannt - zum legendären Musenhof. Barbara Beuys hat für diese Biografie vielfältige Briefe und Dokumente herangezogen und zeigt Preußens erste Königin, die von den Historikern lange verzerrt dargestellt wurde, in einem ganz neuen Licht. Eindrucksvoll wird das kurze, aber bewegte Leben dieser außergewöhnlichen Frau erzählt, die dem Berliner Hof erstmals europaweit spektakulären Glanz verlieh - „Spree-Athen“ -, und mit ihren Aktivitäten weit über ihre Zeit hinausreichte.

Schlüteriana III Kevin E. Kandt,2015-11-06 This third volume of the new serial publication »Schlüteriana« continues the commemoration of the 300th anniversary of Schlüter's death and is dedicated solely to the funerary monuments created by the sculptor, his school, and followers in Berlin and the Brandenburg region of north-eastern Germany. The single text presented here is subtitled »Part Two: Germany« and serves as the second installment of a comprehensive, in-depth survey focused on this highly important genre in the sculptor's oeuvre. It completes the examination initiated by »Part One: Poland« published in Schlüteriana II which dealt with Schlüter's tomb art created during his earlier sojourn in Polish territories. The primary aim of this current publishing project is to bring about a more complete, overall understanding of the artist's production from both his Polish and German years. In these two articles, we have concentrated on his funerary sculpture by providing - in an essay/catalogue format greatly enhanced by an exhaustive photographic documentation of each object discussed - a fundamental description of monuments closely associated with the artist and his circle including comparative analysis based upon key examples from European Baroque art. Certain sepulchral monuments created by the sculptor and his assistants in Berlin may already be somewhat better known to the lay public and art historians, however, those works from his Polish years have thus far still been somewhat neglected and inadequately received into the realm of Schlüter's total output. This two-part study, which attempts to present all the works together along with supplemental commentary on pertinent historical, social, and iconographic contexts of the times when this art was created, will hopefully begin to enrich our understanding of the inter-relationships they share and contribute to a fuller reconstruction of Andreas Schlüter's artistic development throughout his entire career. »Schlüteriana III« is being published in remembrance not only of Schlüter's death in 1714, but also as a tribute to a Berlin scholar who spent many years of her career deeply involved with research into the master's greatest work of architecture - the Berlin Stadtschloss. Her kindness and generosity in the free-exchange of information led to many stimulating discussions about the artist which still, after more than two decades, inspire this author's own studies until today.
