Malcolm Green

The Pocket Guide to LGV Drivers' Hours and Tachograph Law David Lowe, 2006 Tachograph offences are the most common LGV crimes in England and Wales, closely followed by hours-law offences. The majority of these offences are the result of the unwitting actions of drivers and operators who just don't understand the law's requirements. This new edition of the unique and practical guide unravels the complicated law relating to tachograph use and drivers' hours. Fully endorsed by the Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport, this handy pocket guide identifies: *which rules apply to which drivers, *which exemptions apply and to whom, *which records must be kept and how this should be done, *what effect working time regulations have on the transport industry, *the minimum wage rule, *the basic principles of digital tachographs, *the implementation of the Working Time Directive for road haulage drivers, *the EU's proposed changes to the existing drivers' hours law, *new law on the introduction of Digital tachographs, *advice to drivers using Smart Cards. The Guide provides the driver and truck operator with everything they need to know about compliance with the law on these difficult matters.

UK Drivers' Hours and Tachographs Handbook Driver and Agency, C. P. C. Training, 2019-08-19 This guide gives general guidance about drivers' and tachograph rules for goods vehicles. It reflects the Driver and Vehicle Standards Agency's current enforcement policy. It does not reflect interpretation of the law in other countries. This guide provides advice to drivers and operators of goods vehicles, whether used privately or commercially. It explains the rules for drivers' hours and the keeping of records, and updates previous guidance from 2011. The EU regulations also place a responsibility on others in the supply chain such as consignors, freight forwarders, contractors, sub-contractors and driver agencies. People working in these sectors of the road haulage industry may benefit from an understanding of the guidance offered here. Within Great Britain (GB), either GB domestic or EU rules may apply. For international journeys, either the EU rules or the European Agreement Concerning the Work of Crews of Vehicles Engaged in International Road Transport (AETR) may apply. Which set of rules applies depends on the type of driving and the type of vehicle being used, and, in the case of international journeys, the countries to be visited.
